

Faith Without Chains (TM)

The Sacred Declaration

Sacred Introduction

Faith Without Chains (TM) is a sacred declaration and sovereign theological framework that reclaims belief outside the boundaries of captivity - spiritual, cultural, and historical.

We were never meant to worship bound.

The Core Tenets

Pre-Colonial Knowing

A sacred declaration that reclaims belief outside the boundaries of captivity-spiritual, cultural, and historical.

Sacred Recovery over Religious Recovery

Distinguishes healing from spiritual return to harmful institutions or inherited shame.

The Right to Reframe God

Reclaims our sacred voice, selfline, and divine imprint-not as passive receivers but as foundational witnesses.

Covenant Without Captivity

Invites believers into sacred agreement not conditioned by whiteness, patriarchy, or Western theology.

Healing from Religious Harm

Affirms that true healing permits belief without bondage-without guilt, shame, or erasure.

In Short

Faith Without Chains (TM) is the sacred permission to believe without bondage.

It is theology untethered from trauma.

It is remembrance as resistance.

It is belief - rooted, but not restricted.

Scripture and Cultural Reflection

Faith Without Chains (TM)

The Sacred Declaration

- "It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery." - Galatians 5:1
- "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." - 2 Corinthians 3:17
- We carry ancestral memory and spiritual agency. Our worship does not begin in the captivity of colonizers, nor end in the traditions that erased us. To believe freely is to recover wholly.

Foundational Guidance for Sacred Recovery

Sacred Recovery is not a return to broken systems. It is the reclamation of voice, lineage, and divinity without distortion.

- Begin with remembrance: Who were we before we were converted?
- Seek voice, not silence: What truth have you been told to bury?
- Return without guilt: Your liberation is not rebellion - it is restoration.
